

PRESS RELEASE

SOL Group strengthens its telemedicine solutions with the acquisition of 80% of the Italian company Aenduo s.r.l.

SOL Group - a multinational company operating in the technical, industrial, and medical gases sector, as well as in the home care sector - announces the acquisition, through AIRSOL S.r.l., a wholly owned subsidiary of SOL SpA, of an 80% stake in the software company Aenduo s.r.l., thus assisting the founder, Marcello Pediconi, who holds the remaining 20%, in developing this innovative startup.

Founded in Rome in 2017, Aenduo s.r.l. developed its own digital solutions for the remote management of chronic respiratory patients. It has long co-operated with VIVISOL s.r.l., the SOL Group company specialized in home care. Specifically, Aenduo developed and managed the VIVICHECK software.

In 2024 financial year, Aenduo s.r.l. recorded a turnover of approximately 2.2 million Euros, with a staff of 12 employees.

Aldo Fumagalli Romario, Chairman and CEO of SOL Group, commented: "We are satisfied with this new partnership, which allows us to develop excellent digital solutions, increasingly positioning ourselves as a point of reference for innovative services offered to the healthcare world."

Marcello Pediconi, founder of the Company, who will continue to serve as CEO, said: "We are very happy to have become part of the great SOL family. Thanks to the Group's support and expertise, we will be able to further strengthen our mission, offering customers and the market increasingly cutting-edge technological solutions, based also on artificial intelligence."

SOL is an Italian multinational group operating in Europe, Turkey, Morocco, India, Brazil, China, Ecuador, and Peru in two distinct core sectors: the production, applied research, and marketing of technical, pure, and medicinal gases (Technical Gases Area) and home medical care (Home Care Area).
